Another new school year, another moment to reflect on the highlights!

We present to you the second bulletin of Allison Academy, with stories on some of the most important events and activities that took place at Allison Academy during the first semester of this school year.

Sample the abundance of life, academics, and the initiatives our students took during their time at school, and stay up to date with the topics we covered in class, school celebrations, humanitarian activities and so much more!

This bulletin aims to serve as a seasoned guide through the first semester at our school – and we will try to ensure that you get a taste of the fun our students had doing and experiencing all these things!

Experience all the ways Allison Academy is Truly different!

TAKING ACTION, BEING CREATIVE, HELPING THE COMMUNITY

📅 December 24, 2021

As the year – and the first semester – came to an end, it was time to stand still for a while and reflect on everything that happened at our school in the past few months.

Students at Allison Academy are persistent in striving to embody the Allison spirit, and we are extremely proud of everything that they have accomplished and achieved during the first half of the school year. Allison Academy always makes sure that our students not only study in accordance with the highest global academic standards, but also have a fun and inspiring experience of learning and spending time at school.

Allison Academy stands firmly by its values, and this can be seen in countless activities in which we as a school and our incredible and valuable students have participated. From a great variety of inspiring school projects in which the students have exercised their creative and logical skills, through taking altruistic initiatives and creating community space for helping people in need, to simply enjoying the traditional school celebrations in their own unique and imaginative ways.

We wish all our students an equally happy and successful second semester of the school year 2021/2022, and to keep on making the school proud with their achievements and spirits!

Have a look at the highlights which we chose for you, so that we can all always remember the fun times we had at Allison Academy!
