Creativity at an enviable level was demonstrated by our students during Spirit Week

If you are wondering why Allison Academy is a truly different modern school, this bulletin will best explain it to you.

A completely modern approach to learning, daily interesting activities, special events that are organized for our students, opportunities that are provided and successes that are realized one by one - with this sentence we can describe the first semester in the 2022/2023 school year.

Peek into the world of modern education at Allison Academy and see for yourself what a unique education really looks like!

ALLISON ACADEMY'S BULLETIN #3

Now is the right time to look back at all the achievements that are now behind us

We started the summer in our own special way with a specially organized Allison Academy's Summer School, and then we continued to prepare for the new school year, which our students could hardly wait for with their dearest friends, but also with new friendships made with new students.

The beginning of the school year was marked by various exciting activities as well as new opportunities that were presented to our students. Traditionally, Allison Academy has been the right place to be during the holidays. We joyfully welcomed and celebrated holidays together as a big Allison Academy family with all the students, their families and friends, as well as the dedicated Allison Academy teachers and staff.

Our students proved their knowledge, abilities, skills, creativity, imagination, teamwork, as shown by their excellent results in the first semester. Step by step, we started achieving success, one after another, and we are still waiting for the big ones that will come at the end of this school year, when we will celebrate the successful completion of the education of our seniors and wish them luck in the next chapter of education in colleges and in the future.
